

SECRET

USIB-M-622
29 June 1972

25X1 the Committee had been exceptionally responsive to both the USIB and NSA. General Bennett associated himself with the comments of the Chairman and Admiral Gayler and stressed his appreciation for [redacted] strong and steady leadership.

25X1 Dr. Cline joined the previous comments and also noted [redacted] contributions in other fields, particularly as Chairman of CIA's Fine Arts Committee. He recalled that [redacted] headed the Interagency Coordinating Group in the early 50's and that he was a pioneer in organizing and establishing a number of important intelligence community organizations including the USIB.

25X1 In concluding the remarks Mr. Helms commented that it should be clear to [redacted] as he retires that he carries with him the respect and fondness of his peers, a great achievement in and of itself.

b. Appointment of New Chairmen to the SIGINT Committee and Guided Missile and Astronautics Intelligence Committee

The Chairman proposed and the Board endorsed the appointment of David Brandwein as Chairman, SIGINT Committee and Richard E. Hineman as Chairman, Guided Missile and Astronautics Intelligence Committee.

[redacted]
Executive Secretary

Adjournment: 1100 hours

SECRET